

THE LORD'S DAY

September 3, 2023

“For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.” Matthew 18:20

PRELUDE – The prelude is a time for heart preparation. It is important that we use this time for preparing ourselves for the privilege of entering the presence of the King.

Welcome and Announcements

Preparation for Worship and Chorus 420

HYMN “I Would Be Like Jesus” 463

HYMN “Take My Life And Let It Be” 490

Worship by Giving

Prayer for our Missionaries

HYMN “Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus” 326

Scripture Ephesians 2:1-10

Prayer

CHORUS “In My Life, Lord” 674

Message We Are His Workmanship

HYMN “Have Thine Own Way, Lord!” 485

The Lord's Supper

CHORUS “Thank You, Lord” 343

Benediction and Postlude

*“For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.”
Philippians 2:13*

Nevertheless Afterward

I was so happy in my lot,
I was so glad of work or play,
I only asked that I might walk
With others on life's common way;
My Father let the sorrows come
That blotted out the sunlit skies,
That stopped the toil of busy hands
And turned my laughter into sighs.

I was so sorrowful, so spent,
I only asked to dwell apart,
And in the silence and the dark
To nurse my bruised and broken heart;
My Father came and took my hand
And led me forth in paths unknown,
He filled my days with crowding cares,
He would not let me weep alone.

But, looking backward now, I know
How wise and kind He was to me,
The clouds all gone, the shadows fled,
His glorious afterward I see;
If He had left me to myself
I know the joys I should have lost,
The good that I had lacked or missed,
How much I gained, how small the cost.

And shall I doubt His love today
Because once more the mists arise,
Because His hand, though leading still,
Is hidden from my blinded eyes?
Nay, help me to remember, Lord,
As 'neath the chastening rod I bow,
Thy wondrous dealing past, and trust
Thine afterward for this dark now.

Annie Johnson Flint